

Exam Answers

Question 1 : What is an Operating System (OS)? Explain its primary functions.

Answer : it is an interface between user and computer.

Question 2 : Describe the difference between a process and a thread. How does thread management improve system performance?

Answer : a process is an instance of a program that is being executed. the smallest unit of execution within a process.