

Exam Answers

Question 1 : What is an Operating System (OS)? Explain its primary functions.

Answer : an operating system is an interface between user, computer, hardware and software components.

Question 2 : Describe the difference between a process and a thread. How does thread management improve system performance?

Answer : a process is a program that can move from schedule time to cpu for execution. exam.